Reference this Ministry's express letter No. 6/5/51-F I dated the 9th June, 1951, regarding R.A.F. personnel.

2. It has since been decided that in the case of British Military personnel entering or passing through India, only the Military Identity Documents (AF B 2606 in the case of officers and AB 64 in the case of other ranks) and Movement orders held by them may be recognised as valid for entry into India in lieu of passports. It is requested that, if there is no objection, the local authorities concerned may be informed immediately of this arrangment.

3. British Service personnel serving in Pakistan would, however, be subject to the same procedures as other personnel desiring entry into India from Pakistan.
